

To The Federal Communications Commission (FCC)— We are concerned regarding the use of expletives and “brief non-sexual displays of nudity” over television and radio stations. We understand that current FCC rules state it is a violation to air obscene programming “at any time” and to air indecent programming or profane language “during certain hours.” However, we encourage penalization of anyone airing the use of expletives and any displays of nudity at any time. This would include, of course, the use of the f-word, the s-word and frontal female nudity anytime of the day or night. Please, therefore, do not make these rules more lax in permitting the use of expletives and frontal nudity. We are against permitting these things at any time, day or night. Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Dr. & Mrs. Paul Spence
